PROJECTS

SwiftHealth - Healthcare Companion Web App

- Developed SwiftHealth, a full-stack healthcare web application enabling patients to book appointments and doctors to manage schedules through personalized dashboards.
- Implemented an emergency response system that transmits a patient's last known location to their doctor upon alert activation.
- Integrated an AI-powered medical assistant to provide users with general health information and guidance.

Ironfang - Custom Chess Engine

- Built Ironfang, a competitive chess engine in C++ capable of evaluating millions of positions per second, using minimax with alpha-beta pruning, iterative deepening, and transposition tables.
- Optimized search with 4+ heuristics (killer moves, history heuristics, late move reductions, null move pruning), reducing average node count by over 60%.
- Implemented a bitboard-based architecture with Zobrist hashing and endgame-aware evaluation, improving playing strength to an estimated ~2400 Elo.
